Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force (GLRFTF)

On July 20, 2006 Antonio and Terry Shannon, known members of the Gangster Disciple gang, were arrested in Chicago, IL by members of GLRFTF. Authorities in Racine, WI sought the Shannon brothers for Homicide for allegedly engaging in a gang-related shooting which wounded three rival gang members, one fatally. Authorities also wanted Antonio for Felon in Possession of a Firearm, and Terry for narcotics violations. Racine PD contacted GLRFTF for assistance in locating and apprehending the Shannon brothers. GLRFTF investigators, with support obtained from other districts via collateral leads, developed information indicating the Shannons fled to the Chicago area. GLRFTF, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information on the Shannons location at a home on the north-side of Chicago. GLRFTF investigators immediately responded to the target location and attempted to make entry. As investigators entered the residence, Antonio jumped from a balcony, but was taken safely into custody following a brief foot pursuit. Terry surrendered to investigators inside the residence. Incident to arrest, GLRFTF personnel seized two loaded handguns. The Shannons face life imprisonment if convicted.

On July 19, 2006 Robert Bergman, a documented member of the white supremacist gang Peckerwood, was arrested in Highland, CA by members of PSWRFTF, deputies from the San Bernardino County (CA) Sheriff's Department (SBSD), and agents from the California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation (CDCR). Authorities wanted Bergman for Kidnapping, Torture, Mayhem, Assault, Robbery, and Parole Violation. These charges relate to an incident during which a female associate of Bergman's returned to his home after being arrested on narcotics charges. Bergman concluded that law enforcement released the woman so she could inform on him. When the woman denied Bergman's allegations, he allegedly began repeatedly striking her with his fists. Bergman continued to assault the woman when she refused to sign over government aid checks to him. Bergman allegedly broke the woman's fingers with a hammer, burned her with a cigarette, and then doused the woman with lighter fluid and ignited her. Bergman later dumped the woman at her family's home, allegedly threatening those there with death if they contacted authorities. PSWRFTF, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information on Bergman's location, responded to that site, and safely took him into custody.

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF) On July 20, 2006 Khalif Talib, a Most Wanted fugitive in Wilmington, DE, was arrested in the Bronx, NY by members of NY/NJ RFTF. Wilmington PD wanted Talib for first degree Murder and Possession of a Firearm During the Commission of a Felony. These charges relate to Talib's alleged fatal shooting of a bystander while he exchanged fire with another male during a domestic disturbance. NY/NJ RFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating Talib fled to New York, NY. Investigators acted on this information and responded to the target site. NY/NJ RFTF personnel ordered Talib to exit the residence, but when he refused, investigators forced entry and safely took him into custody. Talib currently awaits extradition to Delaware.	 Khalif Talib Wanted for: Murder
Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF) On July 20, 2006 Keith Roberts was arrested in Atlanta, GA by members of SERFTF, investigators from the Clayton County (GA) Sheriff's Office (CCSO), and officers from the Clayton County PD (CCPD). Authorities in Clayton County wanted Roberts for Murder for his role in the death of a college student killed two weeks earlier. Roberts, along with three other individuals, allegedly kidnapped, tortured, robbed, and then killed the male student. Roberts and the others allegedly beat the victim with hammers, stomped, stabbed, and then bound and gagged the man before dousing him with gasoline and leaving him to die in the trunk of a car. Roberts and his associates erroneously believed the victim had a large sum of money. SERFTF developed information on Roberts' location and established surveillance at that residence. Investigators later observed a male fitting Roberts' description enter the home, moved in, made entry, and safely took Roberts into custody.	 Keith Roberts Wanted for: Murder
